West Va. State Library.

Charleston, June 1947.

I came here early this morning with Charley (Edwood) who had been at home on a 3 day visit, he having just been transferred from Miami Florida to Washington, D.C. and is on his way there this A.M. in his car.

I first examined a lot of newspaper clippings from Wayne Co., by various authors but gathered by some of the Government writers during the Civil War. The important ones follow.

1. "Guyandotte of Forties Pictured by 88 year old Foster Stewart," gives account of the old Bridge, Battle of Guyandotte & most everything around that square. I will have it.

Herald Adv.
Oct. 16, 1927.

2. Advertiser, June 24, 1923.

Bar Association &
List of All Circuit
Judges 1809-1923,
(with pictures complete
to be found in the Court House.

3. The War Cry -
